

TO
Miss Mary M. Hall,
OF JAMESTOWN
N.Y.

SERENADE
SOFT EVENING AIR

WORDS FROM THE

New York Daily Times

Music by

J. A. Fowler.

25 Cents.

New York
Published by WILLIAM HALL & SON, 239 Broadway.

Entered according to Act of Congress, 1854, by Wm. Hall & Son, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the Southern District of New York.

1854
Fowler

1901

"SOFT EVENING AIR"

SERENADE.

J. A. FOWLER.

ESPRESSIVO.

p Ped. *

Ped. *

Ped. *

Ped. *

Ped.

Dim.

Soft eve - ning air, I pray thee bear

pp Ped. *

Ped. *

Ped. *

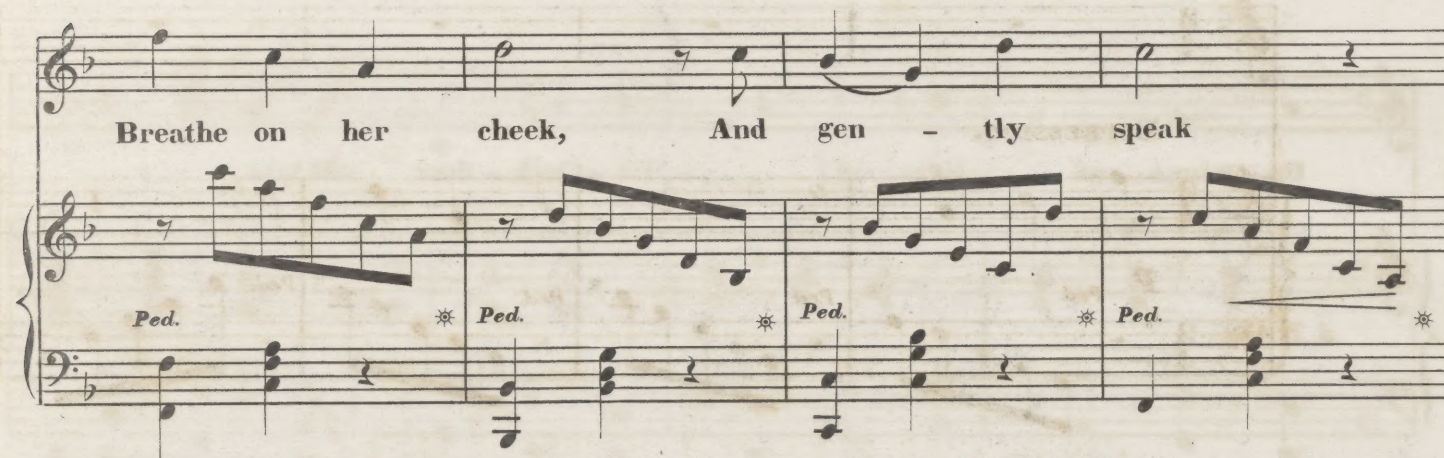

Ped. *

2837

This song to her I love so well;

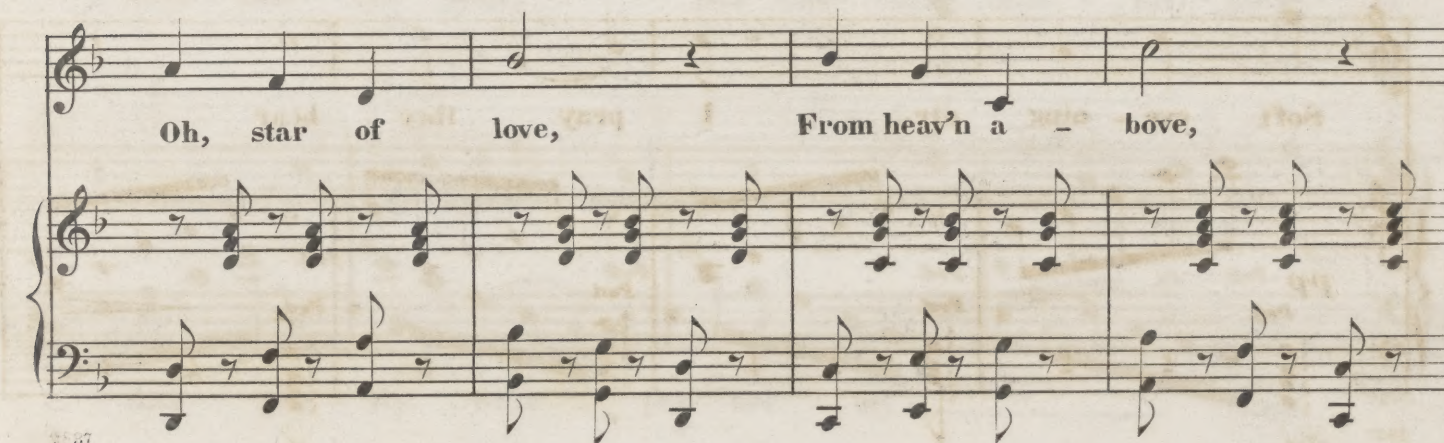

Breathe on her cheek, And gen - tly speak

Sweet words of love I may not tell.

Oh, star of love, From heav'n a - bove,

Watch o'er the slum - bers of my fair,

Ped. f Ped. Ritard.

On wings of light Re - flect - ed bright,

A Tempo.

Swift back to me her im - age bear.

Ped. f Ped. Dim.

f Ped. Ped. Ped. Ped.

2nd Verse.

Oh, wan - d'ring star, Thy ray from far,
 May gaze its fill on her I love; Thou breeze may'st kiss Her cheek, oh, bliss! Nor will her gen - tle voice re - prove. But cru - el fate Still bids me wait, Nor hope such bliss - ful joy to claim, — Star, gaze for me! Breeze, kiss for me!
 And gen - tly whis - per her my..... name.

